TARIFF COMMITTEE.

More Difficulty Encountered In the Wool Schedule.

THE DENOCRATS MAY BE HAMPERED.

The Vacancy Caused by Senator Harris' Death May, if Not Filled, Embarrass Them When a Vote Is Reached.

Washington, July 16 .- The tariff conference committee has made the discovery that there will be still further difficulty in arranging the wool sched--ule on account of the objections of the earpet manufacturers. It appears that while the makers of the more expensive grades of carpets gave their assent to the compromise of 4 and 8 cents, as already arranged, the makers of the cheaper carpets are not pleased and ask that the rate on the lower grades of wool be reduced to 3 cents. The wool men are not willing to concede this demand.

The worsted manufacturers are also making trouble over the senate amendment putting a double duty on wool of the second class which may have been washed. Heretofore there has been no additional duty on the washed article, and it is claimed that the change will work a material hardship.

The Democratic side of the chamber is somewhat disturbed over the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Harris. "I fear," said Senator Jones of Arkansas in discussing the question, "that the vacancy may, if not filled before that time, occasion no little embarrassment when we reach the vote on the conference report. It will be remembered," he continued, "that some of the articles on which we succeeded in reducing the rate of duty, as on white pine lumber and on some which we succeeded in putting on the free list, we had a majority of only one vote. Some of these articles, as burlaps, cotton, ties and paris green, are of immense importance to the farmers, and it would be regrettable indeed from our standpoint if the absence of a Democratic senator from Tennessee should cause us to lose any of them by giving the deciding vote to the vice president.

The senator said in reply to a question that he had heard nothing indicative of the intentions of the governor of Tennessee in the matter of the appointment.

The Senate's Session.

Washington, July 15.—Pacific railway affairs occupied the attention of the senate, and the Harris resolution relating to the pending judicial proceedings against the Union Pacific road finally went over.

Senators Stewart and White indulged in sharp personalities in connection with the contest over the San Pedro (Cal.)

The joint resolution was passed accepting the invitation of France to participate in the Paris exposition of 1909.

Some Postal Statistics.

Washington, July 16.-The comparative figures of postal receipts at the 39 largest postoffices in the country just promulgated show a net increase of $17.346 for the three months ending June 39 last over the corresponding quarter of last year. The gross proceeds for this year's quarter amount to $8,124,968. Ten offices however, show decreases aggregating $98,094. The largest decrease, 9 per cent, was at Toledo, and the largest increase, 8.7 per cent, at Washington. The New York postoffice increased its receipts by $26,027, San Francisco $5,788, and Boston $18,679, while Chicago decreased $22,762 Philadelphia $30,800, and St. Louis $27,527.

It is probable that the end of the affair has been reached, as the police appear to be wholly at sea. Nelson, who has so far recovered as to be able to be in court, will soon submit to the X rays in the hope of locating the bullet, near

THE REPUBLICAN LEAGUE

Fight In the Convention as to Where to Hold the Next Meeting.

Detroit, July 16.-The feature of the closing day of the Republican league convention was a struggle over the next place of meeting. Omaha, which had been recommended nearly unanimously by the committee having the matter in charge, had the pull, but Baltimore made an extremely hard fight for the honor, and the disappointed Maryland people were not disposed to give up their efforts, even after the convention had recorded itself for Omaha. Chicago, Dalias and Los Angeles were candidates which could be chronicled only among the "also ran."

Secretary M. J. Dowling, who had done distinguished duty for two years, was very easily re-elected, according to the programme of the principal slate, and the Illinois and Michigan delegates were unable to make any great showing for Chapin and Blakely, their respective candidates.

The new executive committee of the National Republican league held its annual meeting in the Hotel Cadillac last evening. Chicago was continued as the league's headquarters, and the date of the Omaha convention was left to President Crawford and the committeeman from Nebraska. A new plan of assessments for raising money was adopted, and the secretary's salary was fixed at §3,600.

THE PEARY EXPEDITION.

Everything In Readiness For an Early Start For Greenland.

Boston, July 16.-Lieutenant R. E. Peary, the arctic explorer, has arrived in this city and will proceed at once to make preparations for his departure for Greenfand, where he is to establish a base of supplies for a prospective trip to the north pole in 1899.

Lieutenant Peary states that he expects to have everything in readiness to leave this port on board the sealing steamer Hope next Saturday.

The Hope, however, has not yet arrived, and Lieutenant Peary cannot tell when she will reach this port. "As soon as the Hope gets here," he said. "I shall begin active preparations for departure. This will include getting the passengers aboard and shipping such supplies as will be needed."

The expedition will return in September. The primary object of this trip is to enable Lieutenant Peary to meet his Eskimos and arrange with them for the settlement of a village at a point farther north than any village now exists. This village, he hopes, will be established at about $2 northern latitude to serve as the base of supplies in 1899 and at which the Hope will be left while the explorer tries to reach the north pole with dogs and sledges.

MONUMENT UNVEILED.

Celebrations at the Unveiling of the statue of Father Marquette.

Marquette, Mich., July 16.-Father Marquette's namesake city held a great celebration in honor of the unveiling of a bronz- monument of the explorer and bit-st whose name the city bears. The weather was line, and the streets were swarmed with people. There were large delegations present from every town in the peninsula. The revenue cutter Gresham anchored within a few hundred yards of the statue and fired a salute of 13 guns at the unveiling when the canvas fell.

A feature of the parade was a band of 13 Indians on horseback dressed in feathers and war paint. The band was augmented by as many more men and boys painted to represent Indians. The exercises were held on a platform built at the foot of the statue.

During the reading of an original ode a little girl pulled a cord and released the vell amid tremendous cheering. The statue was presented to the city by Hon, Peter White. The common council, which was sitting on the platform, then and there passed an ordinance accepting it. The main speech was a brilliant effort by Hon. Don M. Dickinson of Detroit.

A Shower of Toads.

Catskill, N. Y., July 16.—During a heavy rainfall in the neighboring village of Leeds there was a shower of toads. The toads fell in a limited area, porhaps 100 square feet. Within that space the earth was literally covered with perfectly formed but diminutive toads. The creatures were uniformly of the size of common white beans of a translucent white color.

SATISFACTORY TEST. WITH THE STRIKERS

The Cutter Manning Is Fully Up to Expectations.

MADE A COMMENDABLE SHOWING.

5ho Answered Promptly All Demands and Will Prove a Very Acceptable Addition to the Revenue Service For Which She Is Intended.

Boston, July 16.-Under the most favorable weather conditions yesterday the new revenue cutter Daniel Manning proved herself to be a valuable addition to the revenue marine by making an average of nearly 17 knots an hour in a four hour speed test in Massachusetts bay. The trial was the official one of the boat, and it required full 12 hours, four hours under forced draft, two hours under natural draft, another hour under two boiler power, with the sharp

A course of 21 nautical miles had been laid out off Cape Ann, and over this course the Manning started. She had not run far, however, before a thick fog was encountered, and rather than risk running the boat at full speed in thick weather, she was promptly turned back.

Foreign Coal Is Being Sold In the Affected Region.

THE SITUATION IN WEST VIRGINIA.

Much Interest Is Manifested In the Mines of the State, and Efforts Will Be Made to Have Their Men

Join the Movement.

Pittsburg, July 16 .- Foreign coal is beginning to cut quite a figure in the Pittsburg market, and the miners' officiais recognize its importance. They are, for the time being, satisfied with the small amount of coal that is being dug in the Pittsburg district and from now on will look after what they term outside encroachments.

Much coal is being sold in the Pittsburg market from the Clearfield and Cambria districts. It is true that it does not come to Pittsburg, but goes to fill the contracts made at the great lakes.

"The men in the Clearfield and Cambria districts are working under the delusion that they are not conflicting with the general suspension," said President Patrick Dolan. "We have arranged a conference with some of the leaders in that section, the time of which I am not at liberty to announce. I am satisfied that we will be able to make them see the error of their ways and join us in this great battle for bread. As far as the Pittsburg district proper is concerned, we have every reason to be satisfied with the situation. It must be borne in mind that when but a few men are in a mine it is not fair to class it among the active list. The fact is it is impossible to produce coal at a profit in the large mines with only a few men at work. I have hopes in yet being able to get the New York and Cleveland men out."

The West Virginia Situation.

The local officials are manifesting much interest in the situation in West Virginia. Cameron Miller said that he would be willing to wager that most of the miners of the mountain states would be out before the end of the week. He said there were about 25,000 miners in that state, and if the organizers succeeded in getting 15,000 of them out the battle could be considered won.

An important feature of the local situation was the shipment of several hundred empty cars to West Virginia, They will be loaded with coal and sent to the lakes, filling contracts made with Pittsburg operators. The Pittsburg operators claim that they were offered coal from all sections of the country and had to refuse a number of propositions. The prevailing price was $1.50, a change being noted from the quotations of the day previous.

The operators claim that the Enterprise. Bon and Cok mines on the Chartiers branch of the Panhandle and the Bunola mines on the Monongahela are running at the 69 cent rate. The latter were recently purchased by the National Rolling Mill company at Mc-Keesport and are claimed to be running

The miners' officials have succeeded nien employed at Keeling, Eureka and Waverly mines from going to work at the 69 cent rate, which had been offered to them by their employers.

According to the miners' officials, the operators have closed the company stores all over the district, and supplies to the men have been cut off. This leaves the miner dependent upon the fruits of forage and charity. In one or two agricultural communities, where the miners are on strike, the farmers have invited the strikers to organize committees and send them with a wagon into the surrounding country to solicit rather than confiscate supplies. The strikers are taking full advantage of this invitation.

Quiet has reigned throughout the Pittsburg district, a truce seeming to prevail pending the outcome of the peace negotiations.

The Miners' Official Butletin. Columbus, O., July 16. -- President

Ratchioro and Secretary Pearce have annual address. issued "Official Bulletin No. 1" to the miners, it being a review of the situation. The bulletin says:

Our fight for hving wages now covthe Union. It is a general suspension, and no local settlements will be authorized or recognized. The second week and the eighth day of our suspension brings with it greater assurance of ultimate victory than any previous day. Our forces are increasing every hour, our determination is untlinching, and our actions are law abiding in every particular.

The states and number of miners involved are as follows:

Western Pennsylvania.—Fully 20,000 miners have joined us for living wages, which makes suspension almost unanimous in every mine in the district. Work still continues in the central field, but steps will be taken in a few days looking to a suspension, which it is believed will be successful.

Ohio.-Twenty-eight thousand miners have laid down their tools in their demand for living wages, making the suspension general excepting a few local Indiana.-Advices received report ev-to the effect that suspension is practieally general and that miners are determined to continue the march until living wages are secured. West Virginia,-About 3,000 miners have joined the movement. Reports from various sections of the state confirm the belief that miners will suspend. Eight organizers have left this city for West Virginia. Supply of coal from the Bastille

HURT BY AN EXPLOSION.

Boys Injured While Sifting Powdered Gun Cotton In a Powder Factory.

Newport, R. I., July 16.-Richard Stephenson and Thomas Williams, two boys employed at the torpedo station. have been hurt, and the drying house of the smokeless powder plant was destroyed by an explosion.

The boys were sifting powdered gun sotton preparatory to carrying it to another house where it would be made into smokeless powder when the mass exploded, burning them severely, bursting out the walls of the house and letting down the roof. The force of the explosion, however, was not as great as it would have been if the substance had been confined. The automatic sprinklers in the building started instantly and put out the blaze.

The boys will recover. The loss on the building is slight, as it was constructed with a view of its liability to destruction by explosions, though every safeguard was taken to avoid such an occurrence.

Physician and Philanthropist. Philadelphia, July 16 .- Dr. Charles E. Cadwallader, head of one of the oldest and most exclusive families in Pennsylvania, was married to Bridget Mary

Ryah, his housemaid.

The wedding, which was private, occurred at the old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal church, of which Dr. Cadwallader has been for many years a warden.

Neither the wedding nor even Dr. Cadwallader's intention to marry has been known to his family or friends, and the announcement will cause the biggest sensation in Philadelphia society in years. Dr. Cadwallader traces his lineage back to royal blood. The founder of the family in America helped William Penn to plan Philadelphia.

Wealth, refinement and ultra exclusiveness have always characterized the Cadwalladers.

Dr. Cadwallader is 57 years old and has always lived as a bachelor in the old family mansion, which is rich in ancestral portraits, old plate and jewels and many priceless relics of the past. He is a philanthropist, practices as a physician among the poor without pay and has had the name of being somewhat eccentric.

The Bride's History.

Bridget Ryan came from Tipperary five years ago and for two years has been housemaid in Dr. Cadwallader's employ. She is 21 years of age, tall, slender, good looking and modest and intelligent. When the doctor proposed marriage she consented if her parents in Ireland did not object. They, being devout Roman Catholics, objected to the match, notwithstanding the doctor's wealth and high position. Father Keely of Tipperary church, Ireland, strenuously opposed the young woman's union with a Protestant, but finally, after months of correspondence, yielded on condition that the issue of the marriage should be educated as Roman Catholics. Both Dr. Cadwallader and his intended bride objected to this condition, and the young woman, who was 21 last week, cut the gordian knot by abjuring the Roman Catholic faith and joining her husband's church. Father Keely continued his fight. He appealed to Father McCormick of St. Mary's Roman Catholic church, this city, of which Mrs. Cadwallader was a member, and also protested to Archbishop Ryan, who-declined to interfere.

GENIUS AND OLD AGE The Exercise of Intellect Does Not Shorten Life.

The Gentleman's Magazine, in an article on the "Age of Genius," tends to disprove the assertion that brain power is incompatible with health. Once we were told that if we wished to become octogenarians we must lay aside ambition, we must be careful in our diet and temperate in our wishes. We must wait upon our bodies and as much as possible keep the mind out of sight. In order to disprove that counsel, we have only to turn from empty words to solid fact.

First, to take the great men celebrated in war and conquest, since theirs, also, is a species of genius, is to find the list headed with Xenophon, Dumouriez and Wellington at 86, 84 and $3. Thence it continues to Charlemagne at 71. From him the numbers decline, though not histily, to Napoleon at 51 and, lovest of all, Alexander the Great, at 32. Nearly 60 per cent. of the warriors chosen at random reached the Biblical standard of three score and ten.

Then, beginning with the great names of state-rait, there are Franklin and Tallyrand, both at 84, Palmerston at $1 and Washington at 67, with the list keeping well up in the fifties, and at the end slowly falling to 42. This is imposing, especially if we add Gladstone and Lismarck, both well over their eightieth year.

Science and philosophy begin with Humboldtat 99, and turnish an imposing list of then whose brains were worked to the fullest extent, and of whom no less than 63 per cent. completed their sevenmeth year.

In short, almost one-half the greatest gerithes the world has yet seen have attained the age of 70 years. Let no one we deterred from becoming a genius by the fear of early death!

DIMINISHING STATURE.

of the Chief Causes Is the Military Service Exacted. This relation between stature and health is brought to concrete expression in the armies of Europe through a rejection of all recruits for service who fall below a certain minimum standard of height, generally about five feet. The result of this, says Popular Science Monthly is to preclude the possibility of marriage for all the fully developed men during their three years in the barracks, while the undersized individuals, exempted from service on this account, are left free to propagate the species meanwhile. Is it not apparent that the effect of this artificial selection is to put a distinct premium upon inferiority of statue in so far as the future generations are concerned? This enforced postponement of marriage for the normal man implies not merely that the children of normal families are born later in life-that would not be of great moment in itself -it means far more than this. The majority of children are more often born in the earlier half of married life, before the age of 35. Hence a postponement of matrimony means not only later children but fewer children Herein lies the great significance of the problem for us. Standing armies tend in this respect to overload succeeding generations with inferior types of men.

INDIAN RAIN-MAKERS.

Crafty Red Men Who Adapt Their

Dacrts to the Weather. All the Indian tribes had rain-makers, and some are yet left. This is one of their methods of operation, explains the New York Tribune. A large body of Crow Indians had gathered, all decked out in their best finery. Two elderly men retired a short distance and seemed to be mumbling to each other something like prayers or invocations; after some time a fire was made on the bank of the stream, when the two rain-makers gave an order and a young man plunged into the river, which was there very deep. When he came up, he had a blue catfish in his hand, which one of the old men took and threw into the fire, the tribe looking on in perfect silence. Then there was more mumbling, accompanied by various contortions and gesticulations, when the gathering dispersed. It rained that night. Perhaps, on the whole, the undian rain-maker is more generally successful than the civilized one occasionally appearing on the frontier in times of drought, the former having a shrewder and more experienced forecast of weather probabilities and putting in his incantations at the right

GIVES OFF LIGHT

An Ever Active Glow Issues from a Recent Bit of Transum,

In a recent lecture before the Royal society Lord Kelvin vindicated the correctness of Volta's early theories in relation to contact electricity. He showed that when a zinc plate and a copper plate are brought into contact with one another and then separated one was charged with positive electricity and the other with negative. He further demonstrated that this was not due to oxidation by air or the moisture of the atmosphere, as is stated in the text-books of the day. Lord Kelvin exhibited other experiments illustrating electrification produced by means of dissimilar metals, and showed some curious properties possessed by uraniom. If a plate of this metal was conneeted with an electrometer and touched by a plate of aluminum posiuve electrification was produced, gradually changing past zero to negative. He also demonstrated that the rays given off by uran.um in a dark room are a constant property of the substance and not a slow radiation of previously absorbed light, as has been chaned, but he could offer no solution of the mysterious action of this metal.

One Another's Trade. The annals of commerce are not entirely without a spice of romance. There is a little retributive justice that savors of the novelist's art in the way the spoiler is sometimes spoiled in business relations. In an article entitled "Made in Japan," the Pall Mall Gazette shows how nations have encroached upon one another's business, and reaped for a time a rich harvest, only to see the same tactics employed by a rival people, and be forced to stand aside while the trade slipped from their hands into the keeping of another na-

Again, however, the spoiler has been spoiled. Of late the Japanese have made themselves masters of the art of reproducing the patterns best liked in England, and have begun to encroach on the domain long monopolized by the English potter. The Japanese product is finer and stronger, and above all cheaper than the best English ware, and Japan is providing the markets with goods which were originally a Chinese monopoly.

GOT RID OF THE CATS.

Clever Plan of a New York Landlord to Rid His Premises of Screnaders, The inhabitants of a row of fine flat houses in the Harlem district of New York have for a long time past been greatly annoyed by nocturnal cat choruses, says the Pittsburgh Dispatch. In desperation plans of poisoning and shooting were discussed, but the owner of the flats, who resided in one of them.

and was a law-abiding man, determined to adopt a better plan, and have some sport at the same time. Placing two traps on either side of the alleyways adjoining his flats, he attached wires to the traps, making a wire connection with an electric bell in his cellar. When a frisky feline took the bait, he came quickly on the scene and put the quarry into a bag. Captives were turned over to the S. P. C. A. and taken away in batches of from three to ten every night. When about 70 of the unwelcome serenaders had been transferred in this way, the strain on the society proved too severe, and the landlord was told to do his own execution in future. His first idea was to electrocute the animals, but he found that the apparatus necessary was somewhat too elaborate. Finally he took the simpler way of inserting in a barrel a tube connected with a gas jet. The cat was dropped in, the lid was shut down. the gas was turned on and the driver of the dead wagon was told by telephone to call.

The neighborhood is now cleared of cats, and the slumbers of the sleepers in the flats are no longer disturbed,

THE MOST POPULAR WOMAN. Dolly Madison's Frank, Cordial Manner, and Ingenuous Demeanor. No woman is more closely or fondly associated with the white house than Dolly Madison, writes Clifford Howard of "When Dolly Madison saved the Declaration of Independence," in Ladies' Home Journal. During the eight years that her husband occupied the position of secretary of state under Jefferson's administration she was almost as frequently called upon to do the honors at the receptions and levees at the president's house as in her own home, where she entertained in a de lightful and sumptuous manner. She was, therefore, fully prepared for the duties that devolved upon her as mistress of the white house upon the election of Mr. Madison to the presidency. In the graceful and skillful performance of her delicate task she gained the admiration of everyone, and added to the popularity she had already won both for herself and her husband. Through the potent influence of her personal charms, to which were added a frank and cordial manner, a sweet. ingenuous demeanor, and the happy faculty of adapting herself to the views of those about her, she readily became a general favorite. Before her reign at the white house was concluded she was the most popular woman in the United States.

Birds Strangely Concealed.

Mr. A. II. Thayer, an artist, believes he has discovered that the light color of the under parts of birds and small mammals serves to conceal them from their enemies. At a recent meeting of the American Ornithologists' union he proved by experiments that an object nearly of the color of the ground, like a potato, is very conspicuous when placed a few inches above the soil and viewed from a little distance. But when the under side is painted white and gradually shaded into the color of the upper part, the object disappears by blending with the ground; the whiteness beneath counteracts the effect of the shadow of 'Le body.

Sentence of Priests. At Prague, in Rohemia, nine priests have, been sentenced to from 15 days' to two months' imprisonment and to pay heavy fines for having acted illegally during the last elections. Several priests were arrested on the spot, while those who took to flight were pursued by socialists, who stormed buildings in which they took refuge.

The Boston Police Refuse to Allow a Body to Be Cremated.

Boston, July 16 .- While the body of Miss Edith C. Ward, who died at the home of Mrs. Dr. Clara Leach Austin In Allston last Tuesday, was being prepared in accordance with the young wowill give an entertainment and lawn man's alleged wishes for cremation an order from the police to hold the body until an autopsy could be performed was received by the undertaker. Another order following the first was directed that the body should be buried in-toad of submitted to the process of > These orders were issued at the request of the relatives of the young woman who, accompanied by a lawyer, called on the police and stated that in their opinion, the young woman's death was the result of foul play. Their reason for this belief, they said, was that they understood that the young woman had made over most if not all of her property to a friend with whom she had been living for some time.

The police officials promptly took steps to prevent any disposition of the body until Medical Examiner Stedman should hold an autopsy.

Miss Ward, who was a relative of a former well known business man, inherited quite a fartune. Those who protested against the disposition of the body said she had been living with Dr. Austin for two years, and although they had heard little from her they were surprised to learn of her death. A reputable physician gave the cause of death as typhoid fever.

Dr. Austin, who was directing the preparations for cremation, states that before Miss Ward died she expressed the wish that her body be cremated.

Backache headache and dizziness faccompanied this, often so severe that they made me wild. ## FRIDAY JULY 16, 1897.

It is asserted that the object of the dinner given by ex-Secretary Whitney in New York, Wednesday night, was to consider a plan for bringing about the union of all Democrats in support of a candidate for Mayor of Greater New York. If Mr. Whitney can accomplish this he will have rendered his party a grearer service than be has yet rendered it, and few men of this generation have done more for Democracy than Mr. Whit-

Mark Hanna is paying the penalty of the prominence into which he he has forced himself. It is believed that he can have been struck off from the 1804 dies settle the coal miners' strike, and Penn- after the year 1804 had expired. If these sylvania's State arbitrators have asked 'are facts, then even the genuine dollars him to help them, because they fear the bearing this date are not strictly legal that will injure Republican prospects. Mr. Hanna has, however, large coal mining interests, and much as he would like to help the Republican party out of a tight place, he isn't a good enough Republican to sacrifice his own personal interests for those of his party. Therefore he stays in Washington to help legislate for the "protection of American labor" and leaves the miners to fight as best they can their battle for living

All doubt of the marvelous richness of the recently discovered gold deposits in the Klondike district of Alaska has been dissipated by the arrival in San Francisco of miners with many thousand dollars' worth of nuggets and dust which they had taken from their claims in a few months' work. These miners who have reached San Francisco are, however, only the advance guard of those, whohaving found wealth, are returning to civilization, for the steamer Portland, advertised to sail from St. Michael's, July 4th, will bring to Seattle a very large number or successful numers and fully $1,000,000 in gold. Thegold mining fever has broken out all along the Pacific coast and there will be a great rush to the Klondike which will result in the whole ueld being worked at the earliest possible day. If the yield is anything like as great as that which has rewarded the pioneers in this new El Dorado, milhons or dollars will be added to the to act. world's supply or gold, next year, and the result will mevitably be the same as followed the discovery of gold in California in [49.—a decrease in the value of gold as measured by silver and other commodities and a wonderful quickening of business activity in all parts of the world and especially in the United States.

A provision was quietly incorporated in the insane tax levy bill, passed by the last Legislature, for the appointment of special counsel, at $1,200 a year, for each of the eleven State hospitals, with an extra allowance, to be fixed by the Lunacy Commission, for the counsel to the Manhattan and Long Island Hospitals. The nature of the duties to be performed by these special counsel is not clearly apparent, for the hospitals have never had much need of the services of lawyers, and during all the years of its existence the Middletown Hospital has been at very small expense for attorney's fees. An explanation of why these eleven new and apparently needless offices were erented is, however, to be found in the appointments of counsel announced, yesverday. Places have been provided for a number of well known legislators and other prominent Republicans. Among the legislators cared for are Speaker O'Grady, of Rochester, Assemblyman Austin, of New York, and Scaator Malby of St. Lawrence county. Hon. Louis Bedell has been named by the managers of the Middletown Hospital as its coun sel, but for some unexplained reason his appointment was not announced, yester.

The investigation of the charges against Frederick Easton, State Superintendent of Public Buildings, made by the Capitol trustees, has as was expected, resulted in the whitewashing of the accused official. No Republican was ever yet brought to account for official wrongdoing by Republican investigators.

It was announced in New York, yesterday, that 120,000 bushels of wheat had been engaged for shipment, next month, to Buenos Ayres. Of late years South American wheat has been a formidable competitor in the world's markets and that there is now a shortage instead or a big surplus in that country greatly meproves the outlook for the American wheat grower.

The State Geologist of New Jersey, in bis annual report, discusses the reclamation of the Hackensack meadows. By throwing up dykes along the main water courses and by a system of tide sluices and pumps operated by wind mills, as in Holland, he believes that the land can be made available for gardening and agricultural purposes. He estimates the necessary outlay, exclusive of the cost of the land, at $1,268,400, and thinks the land when reclaimed would be cheap at $50 an acre, and since there are 27,000 acres of the meadows, he is able to figure out a very handsome profit for any company that will undertake the work of draining the tract. The chief trouble with the calculation seems, however, to be the value put upon the reclaimed land. With improved farms, in good tillage, and within easy reach of the New York market, selling for less than the cost of the buildings upon them, there would be no demand for reclaimed marsh lands at $50 an acre.

DOLLARS OF 1804. From the Utien Herald.

The sale in Middletown, N. Y., of what was undoubtedly a bogus 1804 dollar. recalls some interesting history in connection with the genuine dollars bearing that date. Dies were made in 1804 for the coining of silver dollars, but it can not be clearly established that any were actually coined in that year. The few genuine pieces of that date known to be in existence are generally believed to strike is assuming a political complexion coins, but are what might be called post mortem ptatern pieces.

and Was Shor.

Harry Green, the fourteen-year-old son of Engineer Charles Green, or 207 West Mam street, has a 32-calibre pistol in which he shot blank cartridges on July 5th. Thur-day night he tried to load a 22-calibre bullet in this pistof when the trigger came down on the cartridge and t was discharged.

The bullet entered the fleshy part of his band and Dr. Connor, who was summoned, was unable to locate it after two hours' probleg. The bullet may have passed into the arm and the danger of cutting an artery has caused the doctor to wait until an X ray is put upon the injured member. This will probably be done at Thrall Hospital, this afternoon.

The boy was in severe pain all night, and ether was administered regularly for

Their splendid periormauce so impressed them as to lead them to desire to become interested in some way in their manusacture and sale.

GOSHEN VS. MIDDLETOWN.

An Easy Victory for the Coshen Nine-Biz Scores Wade-The Goshen Team's Winning Becord.

A rather one sided and uninteresting game or base ball was played at the and was born in the town of Greenville. Driving Park, yesterday alternoon, be-She is survived by two sisters and six tween Goshen and Middletown, resultbrothers, among the latter being Albert ing in a victory for the home team. Both sides were kept quite busy making the circuit of the bases, and the aggregate scores are consequently large. A feature of the game, which was particularly noticeable and likewise pleasant, was the utter absence of wranging by the opposing teams. This was, or course, principally due to the impartial work or the umpire, W. N. Homman. From the number of errors made it would seem that both teams stand sadly in need of practice.

The Goshen team has made a creditable showing this season. Three scalps dangle from its belt. Port Jer-Walden and Middletown, and boys are anxiously awaiting the the coming of Saturday, when they hope to scalp Walden for the second time and on their own stamping ground-. The score.

HOUSEHOLD WISDOM. it Consists in Avoiding the Small

Stumbling Blocks. A young girl once heard a bit of wisdom from the lips of a very aged woman -a woman who had rounded the full term of 90 years, and with eyes still bright and clear looked out upon the inrolling waters of eternity. The girl was impressed by the emphasis with which the venerable dame said to her: Bessie, never insist on having the last ord." The determination to have the final word leads to more quarrels and more bitterness of feeling at home than almost anything else in domestic life. The fact is, that one may so control her tongue and her eyes that she may allow her opponent the pleasure of this coveted concluding thrust, and yet placidly retain her own opinion, and in the homely colloquial parlance of the upcountry, where one finds strong-willed people living together in great peace with the most pronounced diversity of characteristics, "do as she's a mind to." Another bit of wisdom may be condensed into a pithy sentence: avoid explanations. In some families nothing is taken for granted. Every action. every decision, every new departure, every acceptance or rejection of an invitation, must be endlessly talked and fussed over, explained and reexplained. In that way lie all sorts of stumbling blocks. As a rule, beyond your parents or your husband there is nobody who has the right to demand of you explanations at each step of your onward path. Don't give them. Establish a reputation for keeping your own counsel. It will serve you well in many a crisis, and be no end of a comfort.

Again, don't be forever setting people right. There is a household fiend with a memory for dates and details, who can never sit still and hear papa say that he went downtown on Monday at eight, without correcting the statement with the remark that the hour was half past. If mamma happens to allude to Cousin Jenny's visit as having occurred last Thursday, this wasplike impersonation of accuracy interposes with the statement that it was Friday not Thursday which brought Cousin Jane. A dozen times a day exasperating frictions are caused by needless corrections of this sort, reflections of this sort, referring to matters where exactness is not really imperative, the affairs in question being unimportant, and no violation of truth being for an instant intended.

A manifest bit of wisdom is to refrain from criticism of food. The sauce may not be quite piquant enough, the salad may be wilted, but in the name of decency say nothing about it in either

Silence is golden in nearly every instance where a defect obtains in the home economy.

To abstain from superfluous apologies is also the habit of discretion.

TO SLEEP WELL

How to Properly Court the Indulgence of Nature's Sweet Restorer.  $\Lambda$  light supper just before retiring is usually of advantage. Babies and brute animals are usually somnolent when their stomachs are well supplied with food, the activity of the stomach withdrawing the excess of blood from the brain, where it is not needed during sleep. On the other hand, people who are very hungry usually find it difficuit to sleep. And, then, a habit of sleep at a regular time and during proper hours should be cultivated in case this habit has been lost. In accomplishing this the attainment of a favorable state of mind is of great importance. Sleep cannot be enforced by a direct exercise of the will.

The very effort of the will to command sleep is enough to render its attainment nugatory. The mental state to be encouraged is one of quiescence one of indifference, a feeling that the recumbent posture is a proper one for rest, and that if the thoughts are disposed to continue active they may be safely allowed to take their course without any effort toward control. This state of mind and thought is next akin to dreams, and dreaming is next akin to sound sleep.

Many mental methods have been advised and put in practice for the purpose of securing sleep, the design being to turn the thoughts from objects of interest to a condition of monotony, as by mentally repeating well-remembered phrases or sentences or by counting. But the state of indifference, if this can be obtained, is likely to be the most efficient, as being the least active. The mere mention of these simple methods will be sufficient to suggest others equally effective.-Medical Rec-

Cocoanut Ice.

Put one pound of the best loaf sugar, broken into lumps, into a saucepan and pour over it one-half pint of water; let this stand for half an hour, and then place it on the fire and allow it to cool for five or six minutes; remove the soum and boil the sugar until it is thick and white, then stir into it one-quarter of a pound of the white of a fresh cocoanut, finely grated; stir unceasingly until it rises in a mass in the pan, then spread it as quickly as possible over sheets of paper which ave been dried before the fire; remove the paper before the ice is quite cold, and let it dry .- Boston Globe. Auntie's Molasses Candy.

One cupful of molasses, two cupfuls of sugar, one cupful of water and one tablespoonful of vinegar. Just before it is done add a small piece of butter. Let all but the butter boil briskly without stirring until crisp threads will fall from a spoon (about half an hour), then pour into buttered platters or pans. Commence to pull as soon as it is cool enough to handle. Another way to test is to drop some of the boiling mixture into cold water, and if crisp it is ready to cool.—Boston Budget.

In the pursuit of wealth many a man loses health—loses the power to enjoy wealth. It is not necessary. Few men ever die of hard work. A man may work as hard as he pleases if only he sleeps well, eats well, digests well. Good digestion is the key to the whole problem. Good digestion brings sound, restful sleep, keeps the appetite good and the blood pure.

Good digestion is secured atmays and surely by the judicious use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is a perfect remedy for all digestive troubles, and beyond that is the greatest blood purifier and nerve strengthener ever sold. Mere Boy on the Stand Oddly Bent the Legal Band.

You can nearly always bet you money on a boy. Boys know some things better than even the angels. In an important lawsuit at Clay Center the other day a 12-year-old boy was on the stand and testified that he had spent just ten minutes in getting a bucket of water for his mother. The question of time was a vital one, and the opposing attorneys tried to rattle the boy. Finally one of them pulled out his watch and proposed to test whether or not the boy knew when ten minutes had elapsed The opposing attorneys on the boy's side of the case strenuously objected to this test, for it is well known that noth ing is harder than to sit still and gauge the passing of time. The judge ordered the test to be made, however. and after the courtroom clock had been stopped and every chance removed for the boy to play a sneak, the trial commenced.

The stillness in the room became oppressive. Every watch was drawn, and the eyes of the multitude rested upon the youngster, who chewed gum, swung his foot against the round of his chair and gazed placidly out over the benches, as though the proceedings had mighty little interest for him. Two, four, six minutes passed, and still he made no sign. Then the attorneys commenced to worry him.

"Isn't time about up?" asked one of them.

"Nope," sententiously responded the boy, as he changed the cross in his knees. Seven and eight minutes passed.

"Haven't you got that water pumped vet?" said the attorney in a tone which was intended to convey the belief that ten minutes had more than passed. "Reckon not," again replied the boy.

and his own attorneys began to chuckle. Nine minutes passed, and tick, tick, tick, went the seconds toward the tenminute mark, and up to exactly three seconds before the limit, when the boy drawled out: "I think I've got that water drawed."

The people burst into applause, and after the trial, when the boy was asked to explain how he hit off the time so correctly, he replied: "Oh, I just sorter knowed, that's all."-Kansas City Jour-

AN UNUSUAL OCCASION.

He Was Never Again Known to Talk or Sing in His Sleep.

"Speaking of riding in those English railroad coaches," said the present wife of a railroad magnate, "it was in one of them that I had the greatest fright of my life. We were in London; mamma was sick, the maid had to be with her and I was left to my own devices. Being an American girl and an only daughter, I felt at liberty to do pretty much as I pleased, and one day decided on a short run into the country.

"In the same compartment with me was a rather handsome man of about 30. I scarcely noticed him till he settled himself comfortably and presently went to sleep. Then he terrified me. He would mutter something and then break out in a shout of laughter. He sang snatches of a love song, talked about the loveliest girl in creation, declared tragically that his beart was over the sea and vaked up shouting: 'Well bowled, Roddy, old man; well bowled."

"I was as sure that I was shut up with a lunatic as of my own existence. He must have seen that I was in a state of terror, for he had no sooner cilled himself together than he began a profuse apology, which succeeded in convincing me that he was sane enough and altogether a gentleman.

"He informed me that he was a bit knocked out for want of sleep, and that his mind must have gone wandering on regardless of his bodily fatigue. "But what puzzles me." she continued.

more to herself than to her hearers, "is that I have never known him to talk in his sleep since." Then her husband laughed a great hearty English laugh, and declared that those on this side of the big pond do not have a complete monopoly of Yankee tricks .- Detroit Free Press.

Vanity in Children.

Mothers are often responsible for the vanity which they may deplore in their laughters. The atmosphere of the tome is too largely one of millinery and nantua making. The dress of young children is often so exquisite that coninual caution is necessary to prevent ts injury, and play is robbed of spontaneity and activity. A mother who and educated her children to all these junctilities of dress said: "I regret so much the exquisite wardrobe of my little children. I see now that it hurt their character." The dress of little girls should be as simple and substantial as that of boys. Everything which precents activity and fosters vanity should be conscientiously avoided. Love of dress is also fostered by the passion for dolls, which is said to be inborn in every right-minded girl. Doll playing is really doll dressing. Every bit of gew-gaw is eagerly sought to bedeck this miniature travesty of a fine indy. The doll mother is but a prophecy of the child mother. If doll playing is the legitimate occupation of girlhood, we ought to have dolls which do not cultivate a taste for wasp waigts and the trivialities of fashion .- N. Y. Ledger.

You can use this icing for filling, but it is not near as nice as the following filling: Orange filling-Put the yolks of three eggs in a small saucepan, add one teaspoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice and half a cupful of orange juice; set the saucepan in a vessel of boiling water over the fire, stir until the contents Hicken; remove and when cold add half a cupful of sugar. - Brooklyn

Doing "stunts."

That seems to be the case with the women who are washing in the old way. You can stand on your head, for instance. Almost everyone could do it, if it were necessary or desirable. But standing on the feet is more natural and more sensible

-and easier. So with soap and Pearline. Everyone can wash with soap-many do. But washing with Pearline is easier and more sensible. The hard work of soap is neither necessary nor desirable. Everyone should give up the use of soap and should use Pearline. 642 Look Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you, "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never Out peddled; if your grocer sends you an imitation, be honest—send it back.

The Old Speculative Beals in New York and New England stock Recalled. From the New York Suc.

The statement was published in Wall sreet, yesterday, that John C. Calhoun, who was at one time an officer of the Richmond Terminal Railway and Warehouse Company, and F. H. Prince, a broket of Boston, had gone to London to organize a syndicate to buy control of the New York. Susquehanna and Western Railroad in furtherance of the scheme for a new line between this city and Pittsburg. It was also reported that the propositions submitted by these gentlemen had been favorably received in London.

In spite of these reports the best informed men in Wall street were disposed to regard the scheme as chimerical and likened it to the reports so often circulated in past years to account for speculative inovements in the stock of the New York and New England Railroad Company before the control was finally acquired by the New York and New Haven Railroad Company.

WOMEN DO NOT TELL THE WHOLE TRUTH.

Modest Women Evade Certain Questions When Asked by a Male Physician, but Write Freely to Mrs. Pinkham.

An eminent physician says that "Women are not truthful, they will lie to their physicians." This statement should be qualified; women do tell the truth, but not the whole truth, to a male physician, but this is only in regard to those painful and troublesome disorders pecu> liar to their sex. There can be no more terrible ordeal to a delicate, sensitive, refined woman than to be obliged to answer certain questions when those questions are asked, even by her family physician. This is especially the case with unmarried women. This is the reason why thousands and thousands of women are now corresponding with Mrs. Pinkham. To this good woman they can and do give every symptom, so that she really knows more about the true condition of her patients through her correspondence than the physician who personally questions them. Perfect confidence and candor are at once established between Mrs. Pinkham and her patients.

Years ago women had no such recourse. Nowadays a modest woman asks help of a woman who understands women. If you suffer from any form of trouble peculiar to women, write at once to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., and she will advise you free of charge.

And the fact that this great boon which is extended freely to women by Mrs. Pinkham, is appreciated, the thousands of letters which are received by her prove. Many such grateful letters as the following are constantly pouring in:

"I was a sufferer from female weakness for about a year and a half. I have tried doctors and patent medicines, but nothing helped me. I underwent the horrors of local treatment, but received no benefit. My ailment was pronounced ulceration of the womb. I suffered from intense pains in the womb and ovaries, and the backache was dreadful. I had leucorrhœa in its worst form. Finally I grew so weak I had to keep my bed. The pains were so hard as to almost cause spasms. When I could endure the pain no longer I was given morphine. My

As Miss Lizzie McGlave, an attendant at the State Hospital, was about to board a car at North street and Wickham avenue, Thursday might, about 8 o'clock, three wheelmen came rapidly from Wickham avenue into North street.

Frank O'Neill, one of the three, struck Miss McGlave in the side and knocked her about four feet against an awning post in front of the Park Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. J. Charles Schwartz entertained Thursday night, at whist, at their commodious home on South street. .

ON THE TIP OF THE TONGUE.

Drivers who were returning from Goshen, Thursday night, were amused, embarrassed or annoyed by two Middletown heak wheelmen. The latter had a position on a bench beside a barn near Phillipsburgh, where they waited the approach of carriages, and as the latter passed them they turned the full glare of their large size bievele lamps upon the occupants.

Just whether they saw enough to pay them for their trouble they can state for themselves, but it was acting "real mean" toward the lovers, for more than one hat was jarred to one side of a nair head

Goshen band concerts continue popular. They draw the same people that have patronized them for years and the place is crowded during the evening. Two-fitths of the people ride in carriages, and the other three-liths stand in the green about the band stand. Round and standing, 16 North street, Middletown, N. Y. round go the carriages, each occupant, and sold for cash or carried on margin. trying to see every acquaintance in the l crowd, giving and receiving in return a volley or glances. The horses know their business, and accidents are unknown.

After the concert the hotels, the ice cream saloons, the soda fountains, attract the crowd. At the hotels the girls sit patiently in the parlors while their escorts drive to a convenient stable, and tie their horses. Frequently the parlors are filled with ladies, while the bar room is lined with young men anxious to carry. the lea onade or other "soft stuff" to the ladies in the parlors. Few drink beer. A Goshen band concert crowd is purely [0, & w an ice cream and lemon soda gathering.

By 9:30 o clock nearly every one has disappeared. Swirt-moving horses hurry away from the hotels as if the driver couldn't get his girl home too quickly. But the "bluff" is over once the cutskirts are reached, and the slowest walking horse is the popular horse. The big, round moon throws its full light upon the "spooners" and the carriage top has to be raised about two notches so that | Wabash, pref the unbeard wagon behind may not have too much advantage.

Wurtsboro So Decided at Thursday's Special Election-$7,000 Appropri-

From Our Wurtsboro Correspondent.

The water works question has kept the village alive with speculation as to the result until Thursday afternoon, when the "mill was pulled off," as it were, at Music Hall. The result was that fifty-two votes out of a possible seventy-five were cast, with only eight against the proposition.

Most of the remaining voters were out of town, but evidently did not fear the outcome, as with such able Water Commissioners as Charles G. Bennett, Mercein Skinner and Charles D. Immen, the $7,000 voted will not be squandered. but economically used in soon constructing a substantial and much needed water works system for our village.
